METAMYTH STORY SYSTEMS · ONE-TO-ONE

The Expedition

Seven arcs of transformation, held one-to-one. You excavate your origin, walk the full metamyth journey, forge your Sword, and emerge with a story clear enough to organize your life around and powerful enough to call in the people and resources your work requires.

THE EXPEDITION

What you walk through

BEFORE THE WEEKS

Origin and crossing

A self-guided initiation into the seven arts of storytelling that reprograms your narrative operating system. You meet the author of your life and take the pen back. Session with Cataleya to embody it in the body. Session with Zachary to cross the threshold and close the old story. You walk out carrying your origin story and your VoiceSeed, in adventure mode, ready for the metamyth.

WEEK ONE

Calling, Quest, Sword

The Calling turns suffering into assignment — the dragon burning you is burning your people, and your sensitivity to that fire is your qualification to help them through it. The Quest finds your star, names your tribe, forges the power you carry. Then you walk the Sword Protocol and forge your transformation into a scalable methodology. We workshop it until it cuts.

WEEK TWO

Vision through Request

The Vision architects a future vivid enough that the brain starts building it — personal to planetary, each scale a natural consequence of the one before. The Mission grounds it in ethos and agreements. The Request shapes your offer, maps every door into your world, and writes the legend that travels without you. The Re-source protocol closes the arc.

WEEK THREE

Legacy and the metamyth

The Return looks seven generations forward. We craft your metamyth: the full arc from origin to legacy, a story so fully lived it begins to travel on its own. You learn to wield it — as pitch, as invitation, as the narrative spine of everything you build. Then we celebrate the crossing.

YOU ALSO CARRY

The Metamyth Kinship Community

Access to the fellowship of builders, founders, and solutionaries walking the same journey. The community that becomes your tribe, your first audience, your co-conspirators.

Two sessions with our kinship coaches

Embodiment · Expression · Heart-centered sales · Capital architecture · Value flow accounting · Leadership. You choose where you need the deepest support and we match you with the guide who has crossed that territory.
